

Job Description

Position Title Campus Technical Arts Director - Part-time (Approx. 8 to 12 hours per week)

Purpose of Position Worshiping God is foundational to all that Grace Chapel does. All other ministry and activity flows out of our desire and commitment to worship Him fully, honor Him in all we do, and serve Him with excellence.

We are currently seeking to add a Technical Arts Directors at each of our campuses in Watertown, Wilmington and East Lexington. The purpose of this position is to lead and support a volunteer campus technical team providing audio engineering, light board and media projection operation -- and to promote a God-honoring Sunday worship environment at our campuses and at various other events throughout the year.

Candidate Attributes The Campus Technical Arts Director, in collaboration with the Worship and Arts ministry at Grace Chapel, builds and leads a healthy volunteer technical arts team as we create worship services and environments which lead people into transformational encounters with God.

In order to be effective in this role, a successful candidate will be a person who possesses many of the following core gifts or passions:

1. Technical Arts: A love and appreciation for the technical arts and a passion to use them creatively to lead others into transformational encounters with God.
 2. Audio Engineering: Strong giftedness as an audio engineer is a big plus, along with professional lighting and media projection knowledge.
 3. Leadership: A gifted team-builder who will enable and inspire others to find, use and develop their technical gift(s) for the good of the church ministry.
 4. Ability to create authentic community within the Tech Arts ministry where individuals are valued, encouraged and supported
 5. Multicultural: Ability to build diverse technical arts teams and engage our increasingly multicultural congregation in worship.
